

Prayer for Kindness

We will be generous when we are fortunate

We will be thankful even in hard times

We will be fair when we judge others

We will be careful with our words when we speak

We will be pure in our hearts

And we will be a lamp for those who walk in darkness

